Having the practical applications, the skills and knowledge to build on each semester and going into the workforce with that knowledge, the encouragement, the skills, have all really allowed me to develop as an educator and leader within my community.

Gracie, Early Childhood Education & Care

As a teacher, I keep on top of industry trends on a regular basis in a variety of different ways. That allows me to liaise and have contact with industry professionals and get a good understanding of what's happening and what's required; the current industry changes and how I can bring that back into the classroom and in particular, amend our curriculum and our assessment details.

BACHELOR OF EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION AND CARE (BIRTH-5)

Course Code: HE20510

Offering practical early childhood education and care skills, theoretical knowledge and work experience, the Bachelor of Early Childhood Education and Care (Birth-5) is designed to develop early childhood teachers who can integrate theoretical knowledge into practical education and care skills in the workplace.

There is a strong, applied learning focus to this degree so that when you graduate, you will be ready to work in a variety of settings including long day care, preschool, integrated child and family services and early intervention services. The practical core units are supplemented by extensive work experience, which will allow you to apply what you've learned in a real world environment.

You will study child development and pedagogical practices, welfare, ethics, diversity and social justice. During work placements, you will have the opportunity to test your theoretical understanding in a real workplace.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

The Bachelor of Early Childhood Education and Care (Birth-5) requires you to complete 40 subjects and a total of 320 credit points. The course includes a total of eight work placement (professional experience) subjects, with students completing one each semester. The work placement subjects do not attract tuition fees or credit points, but must be passed in order to complete the degree.

FAST TRACK YOUR STUDIES

If you have recently completed a diploma in early childhood education and care you may be entitled to exemption from the first year of the Bachelor of Early Childhood Education and Care (Birth-5). Talk to the course coordinator if you think you may be entitled to recognition of prior learning.

This is an Australian Children's Education and Care Quality Authority (ACECQA) recognised course.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

To be eligible for admission into an undergraduate degree program you must satisfy at least one of the following four minimum entry requirements:

- NSW HSC or equivalent, or
- Recognised Tertiary Preparation Certificate, or
- Certificate IV level or higher vocational qualification, or
- Completion of at least one year full time study or equivalent in a degree course at a higher education institution

You do not require an Australian Tertiary Admission Rank (ATAR) for admission.

If you do not satisfy the above minimum eligibility requirements, you can apply for entry into a course under special admission provisions including mature age and disadvantage. You will be required to submit documentation to support your application for special admission.

Some courses have additional course specific entry requirements which are listed in this booklet.

HOW TO APPLY AND ENROL

To apply for any of our courses go to: www.tafensw.edu.au/degrees and click on the course you wish to apply for.

Your application must be received by the closing date indicated. Late applications will only be accepted if places in the course are still available.

Your application will be assessed against the entry requirements for the course. Where the number of applications exceeds places available in the course, applicants will be ranked based on the merits of their application.

If your application is successful, you will receive an email offering you a place in the course. The email will provide further information about how to enrol.

RECOGNITION FOR PREVIOUS STUDIES

If you have completed other studies in a related field or have extensive relevant industry experience, you may be eligible for exemption from similar subjects in the degree program you enrol in. All applications for exemption must be made to the course coordinator and must include supporting documentation. You should attend classes until you are formally advised that your application for exemption has been granted.

TUITION FEES

Tuition fees vary between courses, are reviewed annually and are subject to change. Subject tuition fees payable by the student are the fees valid for that semester, and not the tuition fees that were in place the first time the student enrolled. Additional fees may be payable for equipment and resources.

DOMESTIC STUDENTS

Domestic students pay tuition fees each semester on a per subject basis, i.e. fees are only due for subjects you are enrolled in for that semester. Domestic students must pay their tuition fees by census date.

Eligible students can take out a FEE-HELP loan to pay their tuition fees, allowing them to 'study now, and pay later.'

FEE-HELP is an Australian government student loan scheme. More information about FEE-HELP, including eligibility criteria, is available online at studyassist.gov.au/help-loans/fee-help

Domestic students intending to withdraw from a subject or course, must do so by the advertised census date, or they will be liable for the tuition fees (or the FEE-HELP loan liability) for the subjects they are withdrawing from.

More information about tuition fees is available online at:
tafensw.edu.au/degrees/applying-and-fees/fees-and-payment

INFORMATION FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Most TAFE NSW degree courses are available for application by international students, subject to meeting course entry requirements and satisfying student visa conditions.

More information for international students is available online at:
tafensw.edu.au/international/study/courses/degrees
